

HOW TO PLAY PROGRESSIVE PAI GOW

In Fortune Pai Gow Poker a 52 card deck plus a joker is used. The dealer deals seven cards to the dealer, and to all six player's spots—whether or not they are played. There is a random number generator that determines which playing spot receives the first cards. If the random number generator is not available, Pai Gow dice are rolled by the Banker (house or player) to determine the delivery order of the cards. The dealer always qualifies.

To play against the dealer, the player must make a regular Pai Gow wager in the betting circle. After viewing their cards, the player must sort the cards into a two card and a five card hand using normal Poker rankings.

To win, your two card hand must beat the Banker's two card hand and your five card hand must beat the Banker's five card hand. A 5% commission is taken on winning wagers. If one of your hands wins and the other loses, it is a push. If the player's two or five card hands tie the dealer's the player loses. Any player who sets their hand incorrectly—a fouled hand—loses automatically. If the player is not sure how to correctly set their hand the dealer may assist by placing a House Way button by the betting circle.

RANKING OF HANDS Hands are ranked according to poker with the exception that for the Fortune Bonus Pay Table the Three-of-a-Kind pays higher than a Straight. The highest two card hand is a pair of Aces and the highest five card hand is a Royal Flush. In the regular Pai Gow hands a Straight beats Three-of-a-Kind. The Joker is used only as an Ace, or to complete a Straight, a Flush, or a Straight Flush.

Examples of fouled hands are setting three cards in your two card hand and four in your five card hand, or setting the two card hand as a higher ranking hand than your five card hand.

Side wagers are prohibited.

FORTUNE PAI GOW BONUS Fortune Pai Gow Bonus is an optional wager a player makes, betting that out of their seven cards they can make a minimum five card hand of a straight or better. If a player makes a five dollar Fortune Pai Gow Bonus wager, no commission is taken on their regular winning wager. Additionally, if any player has a Four-of-a-Kind or better, any player who has made a minimum of a five dollar Fortune Pai Gow Bonus wager receives an Envy payout, regardless of the rank of their own hand.
